18th October 2015
Twenty Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today is MISSION SUNDAY.

Please pray for the ministry of our missionaries abroad. They have brightened the lives of countless people around the world. At the moment there are about 1,500 Irish-born missionaries serving in more than 80 countries, often in very poor conditions and frequently risking their lives. The annual Mission Sunday collection today supports their work in more than 1,000 mission dioceses throughout the world. Please remember a prayer every day for these wonderful, generous members of our Catholic Community.

"Among our tasks as witnesses to the love of Christ is that of giving a voice to the cry to the poor".

"Poverty calls us to sow Hope... Poverty is the flesh to the poor Jesus, in that child who is hungry, in the one who is sick, in those unjust social structures".

"I encourage the financial experts and the political leaders of your countries to consider the words of St. John Chrysostom... "Not to shares one's goods with the poor is to rob them and to deprive them of life. It is not our goods that we possess but theirs"". Pope Francis
